South Australian cheese selection

Onkaparinga blue reserve

Milk sourced from local dairies, the cheese is hand made at the historic and heritage listed building that was once the home to the Onkaparinga Woollen Mills in the Adelaide Hills

and

Woodside Edith Ashed goat's cheese

Edith is a traditional French style goat's milk cheese which is rolled in ash. The recipe originates in a small town near Burgundy in France. The milk for Edith's cheese is specially selected from Towerview and Oskjberg goat dairies in South Australia

and

Section 21 Mont Rouge

A semi-soft cheese with a lightly washed rind that highlights the simple goodness of milk, collected fresh from the dairy. It has a savoury flavour, with a slightly sweet finish that is mild and suits all occasions
